

What to Do If You Are Hurt on Vacation

Report your injury to the police, the manager on duty, or the property owner.

Photograph the accident scene and your injuries.

Get contact information from witnesses and/or employees.

Get medical attention at a local hospital or healthcare clinic.

Report the accident to your insurance providers, including your travel and auto insurers.

Call a lawyer right away to start protecting your rights to compensation.